CIRCULAR

It has been brought to the notice of this Directorate that firstly, the Officiating Principals of Government Aided Colleges are having difficulties while handling the administrative responsibilities along with their existing teaching workload. Secondly, there is no remission of workload as well as monthly allowance for Officiating Principals. Thirdly, Junior faculty are appointed as Officiating Principals.

In view of above, all Managements of the Government Aided Colleges under purview of the Directorate of Higher Education, Porvorim-Goa are hereby directed to follow the below mentioned instructions with immediate effect:

- a. In the absence of Regular Principal, the Vice Principal shall exercise the powers of Principal as per the Goa University Statutes SC-16.4.1(V).
- b. In cases wherein the College is not entitled to the post of Vice Principal based on the students strength, this Circular shall be treated as one time NOC of this Directorate to fill in the post of Vice Principal for a period of 2 years or until the time Regular Principal is appointed, whichever is earlier.
- c. The Vice Principal shall be entitled for monthly allowance and remission as per the Goa University Statutes and the Circulars issued by this Directorate.
